Dear Mr. Anderson,

Congratulations!

INTECON LLC has been selected as a winner of a Raytheon Network Centric Systems (NCS) Supplier 3 Star Excellence Award.

Our Supplier Excellence Program is designed to formally recognize our suppliers for exemplary performance in working with our company. We pride ourselves on delivering Mission Assurance to our customers and warfighters — every time — and expect the same commitment to excellence from our suppliers. INTECON LLC has more than met those expectations.

INTECON LLC is one of a small elite group of suppliers that has maintained the highest standards in supplier performance. We appreciate your role in consistent quality of services and on-time delivery.

Raytheon would like to formally present the 3 Star Excellence Award to you at your headquarters. We will work with you to schedule a personal site visit to recognize your company's performance and celebrate our partnership.

We look forward to strengthening our partnership with your company in the future. After all, for our customers and warfighters, performance matters.

Once again ... congratulations!

Sincerely,

Vincent J. Hrenak
